

For Children and Adolescents

What are the ages of the biologic mother and father of the child?

Are the child's parents:

married   divorced   engaged   never married   not married but living together

YES   NO

When the child was born were there any complications with the birth?

YES   NO

Was your child's birth a normal vaginal delivery?

If your child was delivered by C-section, what was the reason?

What were your baby's Apgar scores, if you know?

How much did your child weigh at birth?

YES   NO

Did your child experience jaundice (being yellow), seizures, infections, anemia, or other problems immediately after birth? If yes, what?

After your child's birth, how long did he or she stay in the hospital?

If this was an extended stay, please explain.

Indicate at what age the following skills were achieved:

Smile_____ Rolled over_____ Sat alone without help_____ Crawled_____ Pulled self up_____ Walked alone_____ First words_____ Made a sentence_____

Completed sentences_____ Potty trained_____

What school does the child attend?

What grade is the child in?

YES   NO

Did he or she repeat a grade?

What kind of grades does the child get?

YES   NO

Does the child have a history of attention deficit disorder or hyperactivity?

YES   NO

Does the child have any problems sleeping?

YES   NO

Does the child have any special educational needs?

YES   NO

Is the child known to have any behavioral / emotional / social handicaps?

How many hours a day does the child spend in day care or with a babysitter?

How many hours a day does the child spend watching TV or playing video games?

How many hours a day does the child spend on the computer (not including homework)?

What hobbies or interests outside of school does the child have?

How does the child get along with friends?

How is the child's mood compared with his or her peers?

What sets your child apart from other children?